Sunday, September 21st: Barnstable @ 375 - A NOTEWORTHY EVENING OF CELEBRATION Featuring The Cape Symphony

It's Barnstable's birthday, and the Cape Symphony is in charge of the music. So, they pulled a few strings and drummed up an orchestra! Then they called a few friends who could hit all the right notes. And, when it came to the gift, they had only one thought: a musical premier. What else do you get a town that has everything?!

Don't miss this memorable evening of celebration, a once-in-a-lifetime event. Siobhan Magnus, our very own American Idol, and Grammy nominated jazz artist, Kate McGarry are coming home to take us Somewhere Over the Rainbow with music you know and love, like When You Believe, Danny Boy, All My Tomorrows, and of course, Old Cape Cod.

You'll also be the first to experience the Seven Faces of a Stone, composer Brett Abigaña's exquisite musical tribute to the seven villages of Barnstable. You will also hear from hometown poets, writers and actors and learn of other artists who have made contributions, as breathtaking as the landscape, to Barnstable's rich history.

Join us for a remarkable evening as we celebrate our town. After all, Barnstable only turns 375 once.

Barnstable @ 375, 8PM Barnstable High School Performing Arts Center, 744 West Main Street, Hyannis, MA.

Tickets are $25 each. All tickets are General Admission.

Tickets on sale: Beginning Friday, August 15th through the Cape Symphony Box Office at 1060 Falmouth Road, Hyannis, MA, telephone 508-362-1111 or at www.capesymphony.org and through the Barnstable Town Clerk's Office, 367 Main Street, Hyannis.
