SANDY NECK NEWSLETTER

January 2024

From the Staff,

Happy New Year! Sandy Neck is a great place to work on those new year resolutions; get in a beautiful hike and spend more time outdoors! Make sure to dress in layers, stay hydrated, and check the weather before heading out on an adventure.

It was a slow start to the cold-stunned sea turtle season, but over the last few weeks staff has rescued Kemp's Ridley and Loggerhead sea turtles that have washed up on the beach!

As a reminder to patrons, please be respectful of other visitors and wildlife and keep dogs leashed as required.

Wildlife such as turtles, marine mammals, and sea birds are more susceptible to stranding during the cold winter months - if you find wildlife in need of assistance on the beach or trails, please call the Gatehouse at (508)362-8300.
